

Heber Men to Receive Doctors of Medicine

Dr. K. Douglas Nielson

The University of Utah is pleased to announce the Karl Douglas Nielson, 35 O St., Salt Lake City is one of 698 student who are candidates for advanced degrees at its ninety-eighth annual commencement on June 9.

Mr. Nielson, a son of Mrs. Karl O. Nielson of Heber City is a candidate for Doctor of Medicine degree.

Mr. Nielson, a 1958 graduate of Wasatch High School, Heber, is a candidate for Doctor of Medicine degree.

Mr. Nielson, a 1958 graduate of Wasatch High School, Heber, received his B. S. degree in Medical Biology from the University of Utah in 1964 (magna cum laude). He is married to the former Vera Casper, Heber, Utah, and they are the parents of two children.

Mr. Nielson is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, honor fraternity, and Alpha Omega Alpha, medical honor fraternity. He was the recipient of the Mosby Research Award in 1964 and graduates in the top ten of the medical school class.

After graduation Mr. Nielson plans to begin surgical internship at University of Minnesota Hospitals followed by residency training in Neurological surgery.

Mr. Nielson joins an elite corps of university graduates, senators, congressmen, governors, Pulitzer prize winners, church presidents, astronauts, corporation executives, and countless business and professional men are among the University of Utah's distinguished alumni.

Dr. Keith L. Ritchie

The University of Utah is pleased to announce that Keith L. Ritchie, 1635 East Stratford Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah, is one of 698 students who are candidates for advanced degrees at its ninety-eighth annual commencement June 9.

Mr. Ritchie, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ritchie, 875 South Main, Heber, Utah, is a candidate for a Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) degree.

Mr. Ritchie, a 1957 graduate of Wasatch High School (studentbody president) received his B. A. degree from the U. of U. in 1964, graduating magna cum laude. He is married to the former Vera Butler of Kamias, Utah, and they have one child.

During his undergraduate years, he was a member of the following honor fraternities: Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Beta Kappa and also served one year as president of the local chapter of the Student American Medical Association. Mr. Ritchie graduated from the U. of U. Institute of Religion (LDS) and sang with the University's Acappella Choir.

He received several student research fellowships in cardiology, and presented a scientific paper concerning cardiac arrhythmias at the Student Research Forum in Galveston, Texas in April of this year.

After graduation Mr. Ritchie will begin his internship at the U. of U. Hospital.

Commencement speaker will be Dr. Arnold J. Tynbee, the world's most distinguished living historian. Honorary degrees